

JOIN and BECOME A VOLUNTEER FOR:
The World of Health IT '07: Connecting Leaders in Technology and Healthcare
Vienna, Austria, 22-25 October 2007

Brussels, 3 September 2007

Whether you are studying science or arts, this is a great opportunity to interact with prominent representatives from major world bodies and develop an understanding of the Health Information Technology sector.

As a volunteer, you will receive the following FREE of charge:

- World of Health IT Conference registration
- Room and board for up to four nights (room & tax only) – does not apply to Vienna residents
- Subway passes for transportation to and from the Austria Centre Vienna
- All scheduled meals throughout the days of the conference including daily breakfast and lunch, plus two receptions
- Access to educational sessions and exhibition (Free time varies by assignment)
- Post conference financial compensation

Transportation from your hometown to Vienna and from Vienna Airport to the conference centre is not covered by the conference organisation.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Welcoming and orientating attendees during the conference
- Ensuring the educational sessions run smoothly
- Helping for the logistics organisation when necessary.

If you are unable to volunteer but you wish to attend the conference, as a student you can either:

- Attend the World of Health IT Conference Exhibition on Wednesday 24 October and Education Sessions on Thursday 25 October at no charge!
- or
- Attend the entire World of Health IT Conference for the reduced student rate of only 50 €

Volunteers should be 21 years of age or older. For more information go to www.worldofhealthit.org

To apply, send a one-page CV to bmbiaffie@worldofhealthit.org with the subject line 'WHIT volunteer'. Applications will be accepted until positions are filled.
