

Webfigure 2. Protein-protein interaction network of significantly DEGs with a fold change over two, respectively. Black nodes (25 DEGs) indicate down-regulated genes and white nodes (three DEGs) up-regulated genes with corticosteroid use. Gray nodes represent proteins identified by the nearest neighbour expansion method.