

Scaled Schoenfeld residual plot for Statin use:

The protective effect of Statin use appears to be most pronounced in a period of 1-5 years after transplantation. Later, there is equal or even higher (though non-significantly) risk of graft failure for Statin users compared to non-users.