

NEUBERGER Manfred – Curriculum Vitae

Born Sept 14, 1946 in Vienna, Austria. Married to a general practitioner, one daughter (ophthalmologist).

Current position: Full professor of Environmental Health at the Center of Public Health, heading the Department of Preventive Medicine at the Institute of Environmental Health at the Medical University of Vienna.

Education and training: 1971 M.D. (University of Vienna) and ECFMG graduate. Completion of residency in Internal Medicine 1977 and Public Health (Hygiene & Preventive Medicine) 1980. Postgraduate training in environmental medicine, occupational medicine and epidemiology. Certified internist and specialist in hygiene, preventive and occupational medicine.

Former leading positions: senior physician, heading a medical department in a Viennese hospital, 1989-92 deputy director of the Institute of Environmental Medicine of the municipality Vienna, then deputy director of the Institute of Environmental Health at the University of Vienna.

Research: >400 scientific publications, mainly on health effects of air pollution, cancer epidemiology and lung disease: <http://www.meduniwien.ac.at/user/manfred.neuberger/daten/LIST.htm>

Consultancies: WHO: International Programme on Chemical Safety of (member and chairman of task groups), International Agency Research on Cancer (member of working groups), United Nations Development Programme (clinical toxicology, environmental and occupational medicine).

Board member of: International Society of Environmental Medicine (now GHUP), International Council for Scientific Development, Austrian Society of Hygiene, Microbiology and Preventive Medicine, Austrian Society of Occupational Medicine, Austrian Society of Pneumology, Austrian Society of Toxicology, Austrian Council on Smoking & Health. Member of: International Commission on Occupational Health, International Council for Scientific Development, International Academy of Science (Health & Ecology), Society of Hygiene, Environmental and Public Health Sciences (Advisory Council), Austrian Academy of Sciences (Clean Air Commission), European Network on Young People and Tobacco, European Network on Smoking Prevention (national representative).